Trestle Board – December 2018

Brethren:

As we approach the end of this Masonic year, I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to all of you for making my time in the East fun and, for the most part, not too stressful. From the Stafford County Christmas parade, the many fraternal visits, our first ever Easter Egg Dash, to degree conferrals you proved that although we are a small Lodge, we are also a very successful one and I received many positive comments from other Masters about what we were doing. As we move forward, I know your support will continue for the next Worshipful Master and his officers.

That leads into the fact that at our Stated on December 13 we will have our election of officers for the 2019 Masonic Year. This will be followed by an open installation of officers on Saturday, December 15 at 1 pm. Light refreshments will follow. This is also a good time to bring friends and family who may be curious about our Craft and let them learn a little bit about Masonic philosophies.

As with last year, the Stafford County Christmas Parade is the same evening at 1700. It has been decided that this year we will not have float but will participate by marching in the parade. We hope to have a good showing so please let myself or one of the other officers know if you are willing to join us. I will send out further details after the parade meeting on December 6.

As a reminder, RW Brother Weaver has sent out the 2019 dues notices. Dues this year are $176 and, for your convenience, each notice was sent with a pre-addressed and stamped return envelope. Please remit your dues as soon as you are able.

As always, if you need a ride to a Stated or any other event please let one of the officers know.

I wish all of you and your families a very happy holiday season.

Fraternally,

Brother Rich, WM
